

The Indian telecom sector is undergoing a significant change. As the market evolves to adopt new technologies and new growth drivers emerge, operators are re-looking at their business strategies. Consolidation has gained momentum and several operators are resorting to mergers and acquisitions (M&As) to derive operational benefits and ensure long-term sustainability. Data is being seen as the key revenue driver as operators focus on garnering 4G market share. Industry experts share their views on the emerging trends...

Abstract

Wayfinding

Cartojet

Terms & Conditions

